A photograph of two people canoeing on a river. The canoe is green and white, with the brand name 'WESTLAKET' visible on the side. The person in the front is wearing a blue jacket and a red life vest, and the person in the back is wearing an orange jacket and a red life vest. They are both using blue paddles. The river is surrounded by a dense forest of tall trees, and the water is dark and calm. The background shows a rocky bank with some green moss or algae.
